PROUDLY PRESENTED IN ASSOCIATION WITH :

INVITATION

Tēnā koe Prospective Exhibitor and Sponsor:

On behalf of the Women's Health College of NZNO (New Zealand Nurses Organisation / Tōpūtanga Tapuhi Kaitiaki o Aotearoa), we would like to thank you for your interest in the Women's Health College and the annual Women's Health College Conference. We welcome your partnership and support as we work to improve the health of wāhine/women in Aotearoa New Zealand.

Conference dates 4 - 6 May 2023

Our upcoming 2023 Conference will be held in Tauranga, May 4 – 6, 2023, at Trinity Wharf Tauranga. This year, our theme is Illuminate where we will focus on women's health across the lifespan and ways healthcare providers can be better practitioners. This focus is especially relevant with the upcoming introduction of Aotearoa New Zealand's first Women's Health Strategy, which recognises the unique healthcare needs of women and seeks to address the inequities faced by wāhine Māori.

The Women's Health College is the professional nursing voice for women's health and related issues. We advocate for wāhine, influence health policy, and aim to provide nursing leadership to promote, support and advance nursing practice in relation to women's health in Aotearoa New Zealand.

Your participation provides the opportunity to:

- Network with frontline providers from around the country
- Promote your organisation and services to delegates
- Demonstrate and raise awareness of your product
- Showcase your commitment to women's health and women's healthcare providers
- Learn about the impacts on women's health

We hope you find the sponsorship information helpful, and we look forward to collaborating with you and your organisation.

Ngā mihi nui

Callie Reweti and Melissa Jacobsen

Many attendees have international connections as 32% of Aotearoa New Zealand's nurses are internationally qualified.

WHO WE ARE

NZNO (New Zealand Nurses Organisation/Tōpūtanga Tapuhi Kaitiaki o Aotearoa) has a history going back to 1905 when nurses in Wellington formed the Wellington Private Nurses Association. The Wellington nurses sparked the creation of other nursing associations throughout the motu/country, and the Trained Nurses' Association began in 1909. Over the years, the growth and influence of the Trained Nurses' Association continued, and in 1993, the Trained Nurses' Association amalgamated with the Nurses Union to establish NZNO.

From those humble beginnings, NZNO now has over 55,000 members and is the leading professional body for nurses in Aotearoa New Zealand. Members include nurses, midwives, students, kaimahi hauora, health care workers and allied health professionals.

The Women's Health College began 20 years ago in 2003 and was known as the Women's Health Section at our inception. In 2017, we became the Women's Health College. We strive to be a driving force to ensure all women in Aotearoa/New Zealand receive optimum healthcare through advocacy, educational support for members, policy submission, and collaboration with other organisations to create positive change for women's health.

Our membership consists of NZNO members who are committed to the improvement of women's health. Our members are predominately women who work in diverse settings across Aotearoa New Zealand.
